

All students are required to purchase their literature books and a graphing calculator.

IB1: English A: Literature Booklist (2024-2026)

1. How to Read Like a Professor – Thomas Foster (Resource)
 - a. Read this during the summer break
2. Persepolis – Marjane Satrapi
3. Love in the Time of Cholera – G. Garcia Marquez
4. The Bluest Eye – T. Morrison
5. Macbeth – W. Shakespeare
6. The Importance of Being Earnest – O. Wilde
7. If This is a Man - P. Levi
8. Wide Sargasso Sea – J. Rhys
9. Their Eyes Were Watching God – Z. Neale Hurston
10. Between the World and Me - T. Coates
11. A View from the Bridge – A. Miller (only HL)
12. Master Harold and the Boys – A. Fugard (only HL)
13. The Stranger – A. Camus (only HL)
14. The Story of Zahra – H. al-Shaykh (only HL)
15. Poetry of Langston Hughes – L. Hughes (not to be purchased; students will get copies)

The availability of the chosen work(s) is limited, so we still need to find a suitable work in translation.

*We will start with #2 (Persepolis). Students will be told which novel follows.

Students have to create a learner portfolio which can be a physical portfolio or a digital one (eg. via ManageBac, Padlet etc)

If they choose a physical one, they must have the binder/copy book at all times. Same goes for the laptop/tablet. Copies and or links to the poems will be posted in ManageBac.

Mathematics Materials

Graphing calculator – Texas Instruments TI-84 Plus CE

Computer Science Materials

Personal laptop required.